Oberammergau 2010

See the glory and feel the power...

Seeking reprieve from the Bubonic Plague, the inhabitants of the village of Oberammergau vowed that if God were to spare them from the plague, they would perform a play every ten years depicting the life and death of Jesus. No one else died from the Plague...and that first performance in 1634 spurred a heartfelt tradition that still lives on today. Seven exciting tours to choose from.
