

Cruise the World with Paramount

Panama Canal

Immerse yourself in the story of the Panama Canal... The Panama Canal was a romantic tourist destination even before its opening. Reporters, photojournalists, adventurers and the curious came from around the world. What they found was almost too big for words. One early reporter wired, "This canal is both a first and a last... man will never again build with such scope, such imagination."

The Panama Canal is the centerpiece, of course, but treasures abound on both sides. Cruise from sea to shining sea, with delightful days exploring the Panama Canal, the Caribbean, Central American and Mexico. Make a fascinating foray into jungle-clad Gatun Lake, head south, down the luminous coast of South America to discover the ancient Inca Empire. Or, glide slowly up the Amazon past sultry river towns. What choices!

Europe – the Classic Destination!

Somewhere on a sunny isle in the Aegean, in a seaside café, a plate of cheese and olives, and a glass of chilled wine awaits. Further north, in a grand capital of museums, broad avenues and historic monuments, our tour is about to commence. Europe is a region of such beauty and love, it defies description. Here, among the Mediterranean beaches, romantic canals, fabled cities and inspired landscapes of the Old World, a complete escape beckons. Answer its call with an exciting cruise vacation like no other!

The Hawaiian Islands

Tropical treasures of unparalleled beauty. The laid-back aloha attitude infuses each languid moment. Be prepared to slow down. You'll want this experience to last. And beside, it's just the way time moves in Hawaii. Of course, you'll see the famous sights – Pearl Harbour, the quaint whaling village of Lahaina on Maui, Kauai's monumental Na Pali Cliffs, the simmering majesty of the Big Island's Kilauea Volcano. But best of all, you'll slip blissfully into that unmistakable island pace, and return from your tropical escape refreshed and renewed.

Tahiti and the South Pacific

Unspoiled and the utterly unforgettable! A century ago, Paul Gauguin came here to escape the modern world. He found a lush utopia of pristine islands populated by gracious people, which he painted in vivid colors that conveyed a sense of joy, beauty and freedom. That South Pacific still exists today, largely untouched by the march of progress. Cruise here and you may find your inner artist awakened on your own idyllic escape.
