New England Rails & Sails

Travel by historic rails and scenic sails as we explore the sights and sounds of New England. Beginning in 17th century Boston, your motorcoach takes you along the Freedom Trail, to Paul Revere's House and Bunker Hill. Other sites include the 1729 Old South Meeting House where Samuel Adams launched the Boston Tea Party. See Boston Common and historic Quincy Market.

Our first scenic rail journey is through New Hampshire's White Mountains on the Hobo Railway. On the Essex Steam Train, one spectacular view follows another as we pass through some of the most beautiful country in Connecticut. On the Cape Cod Central Railroad, the Cape's cranberry bogs, woodlands, salt marshes, sand dunes and ocean vistas combine to make this a memorable journey.

In typical New England fashion, we will board an island ferry for a cruise along the rocky shore of Maine. We also cruise the Connecticut River and explore its coves and inlets aboard the Becky Thatcher. Our last nautical adventure is a cruise on Hyannis Harbor in a replica of a Maine coastal steamer.

Visit New England, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island.
