

EARLY BOOKING BONUS – ONBOARD CREDIT

Panama Canal

Bridge Between Worlds

MEXICO | COLOMBIA
COSTA RICA | NICARAGUA
GUATEMALA | CALIFORNIA

Immerse yourself in the story of the Panama Canal...The Panama was a romantic tourist destination even before its opening. Reporters, photojournalists, adventurers and the curious came from around the world. What they found was almost too big for description: Locks with walls 1,000 feet long, gates seven feet thick, the world's largest manmade lake. One early reporter wired, "This canal is both a first and a last...man will never again build with such scope, such imagination." Never say "Never". To handle the wave of maritime traffic and supersized ships, the Canal is receiving an extreme makeover – a new set of locks, deeper navigational channels, wider shipping lanes. All scheduled for completion in 2014.

There's really no other way you can fathom the history and engineering wonder of the Panama Canal than to pass through it. The Panama Canal is the centerpiece, of course, but treasures abound on both sides. Cruise from sea to shining sea, with delightful days exploring the Panama Canal, the Caribbean, Central America and Mexico.

April 22, 2011 | 22 Days

Ft. Lauderdale to Vancouver

Rates (based on per person, double occupancy)

INSIDE FROM	OCEANVIEW FROM
$2,899 DBL	$3,299 DBL

Classic Alaska

Shimmering Glaciers & Majestic Fjords

JUNEAU | GLACIER BAY
KETCHIKAN | SKAGWAY

The classic Alaska cruise threads through the Inside Passage where fir forests slip by seemingly close enough to touch. Explore rustic frontier towns like Skagway and Ketchikan. Marvel at the shimmering centerpiece, Glacier Bay all from your deck on board the ms Volendam. Experience one of Alaska's best kept secrets, the twin Sawyer Glaciers at Tracy Arm.

Juneau is the place to let your imagination run wild. Explore the lush Tongass National Forest. Visit the rustic shops in town. History buffs can browse the Alaska State Museum and gold rush fans can tour the Last Chance Mining Museum.

Ketchikan clings to the shores of Tongass Narrows and drapes the mountains with a cheerful air. Walk down Creek Street, built out over the water and clinging to the edge of Deer Mountain, to soak up the 19th century flavour of historic Ketchikan.

May 25, 2011 | 7 Days

Vancouver Roundtrip

Rates (based on per person, double occupancy)

INSIDE FROM	OCEANVIEW FROM
$1,200 DBL	$1,300 DBL

Single prices are available upon request. Rates are based on per person, double occupancy and include port charges and taxes. Please note that due to volatility in air prices, airfare will be quoted upon request.