Branson is the "Live Music Capital of the World", the No. 1 motor coach destination in the US. From the peaceful hills and waterways to the glitz and sparkle of the music shows, you will experience what cannot be found anywhere else in the world. Autumn in the Ozarks is truly glorious. The landscape explodes in an array of rich colors.

Nashville evokes images of rhinestone cowboys and sequined guitarists. It is the undisputed country music capital of the world. Visit the Grand Ole Opry House, a milestone venue for any country star who hopes to someday make it big. Dine at the Gaylord Opryland Hotel, a must see.

San Antonio is one of America's most picturesque cities with its beautiful and famous River Walk (Paseo Del Rio). It is the cradle of Texas liberty where the legacy of rich history comes alive. The Alamo and the River Walk draw more people than any other visitor destinations in the Lone Star state. For history buffs, San Antonio is a mecca.

Deadwood City in the Black Hills of Western South Dakota, the entire city is a designated national historic landmark. Home to Wild Bill Hickok, Calamity Jane and Wyatt Earp. Visit Mount Rushmore, four past presidents carved on the face of a mountain and Crazy Horse, a 563 foot tall memorial that when completed will dwarf even the carvings on Mount Rushmore.

Bozeman is a major gateway to Yellowstone National Park with breathtaking scenery and erupting geysers, the most famous, Old Faithful. Much of the Montana landscape that Lewis and Clark crossed remains unchanged.

Memphis is the home of the blues and the birthplace of Rock 'n Roll. Visit Elvis Presley's Graceland and world famous Beale Street, Home of the Blues.

Shreveport, Louisiana is steeped in Southern Style. Southern Hospitality and heritage run deep in the soul of this city. Riverboat casinos evoke the glamour and mystery of the past while providing modern travellers with thrills and excitement.

Galveston has more than 30 miles of beaches plus a wealth of cultural and historic institutions making this island a Gulf of Mexico hot spot.

Santa Fe is the oldest state capital in North America. The city represents a blend of cultures that have each added something to the distinctive flavour of this nearly 400 year old city.

"The very best tour we've been on. The days just flew by. The Paramount team went above and beyond"
